NASCA: DUNES OF USACA

Departure from the city of Nasca to the archaeological site of Cahuachi, and then continue to Estaquería. Continuing the trip, we go by ancient forests of huarangos, until reaching the dunes of Usaca, sea of dunes and natural barrier between the fertile valleys and the real desert. This is where we will enjoy one hour of sandboarding. After the fun, we will go through the valley of Poroma and then return to Nasca.

NASCA: CERRO BLANCO

Departure from the city of Nasca toward the foothills of the Peruvian Andes (30m). Upon reaching the point, take a walk uphill that will demand 4 hours to reach the summit of Cerro Blanco (2.078mt/6.820ft). Once in the place, practice some sandboarding in many dunes on the top. Therefore, after receiving all safety instructions on how to use the board and some styles, we will be ready to go down the hillside, the slope of which is about 1.000 meters. After reaching the edge of the dune, walk 1 hour to meet with transportation that will take us back to Nasca.

NASCA: SAN FERNANDO

Departure from the city of Nasca to the archaeological site of Cahuachi and then continue to Estaquería. Continuing the trip, we go by ancient forests of huarangos, until reaching the dunes of Usaca, sea of dunes and natural barrier between the fertile valleys and the real desert. This is where we will enjoy one hour of sandboarding. After the fun, we continue our journey through the pampa Huaracanga, where there are fossils of whales. After crossing the coastal belt of hills that protect from sea winds, we arrived at Punta San Fernando, located in a bay that houses and protects some 353 species of animals, such as sea lions, Humboldt penguins, otters, among others. Furthermore, this place is considered the last coastal habitat of the condor. In the late afternoon, return to Nasca.

PARACAS: DESERT OF PARACAS

The dunes of Paracas are private circuits with exclusive access for our buggies. This desert consists of four major dunes where you can decide on the kind of ride you wish, whether exploring the beautiful landscape of wind-formed dunes by riding on a flat surface, or enjoying an adventurous and exciting route by riding through a circuit that goes up and down dunes at the height of your choice. We will take a break for you to have the opportunity to take snapshots and practice sandboarding too.

The dune buggy is a vehicle in which original bodywork has been changed for a tube structure by eliminating doors, roof and windows, and by exposing the engine and other parts of the bonnet. Thus, it results in a very light-weight vehicle with a highly improved stability.

PARACAS: SUNSET IN THE DESERT

Start +/- 5pm We will depart in the dune buggies for an exciting tour through the fine sand dunes. You will experience the adrenaline while we ascend and descend slopes that reach 100 meters high. You will enjoy panoramic views of the majestic desert and will have the opportunity to practice sandboarding with specially prepared boards, following the instructions for a safe and exciting experience.

The journey will take you to a location prepared exclusively for passengers, surrounded by impressive dunes and with an unbeatable view of the sunset. The space will be decorated with rugs, cushions, lamps and other elements that will create a cozy and romantic atmosphere. A soft musical background will accompany the moment while you enjoy carefully selected wine, appetizers and drinks.

Finally, transfer back to the hotel.
