Peruvian Paso Fino horse

The modern Peruvian Paso Fino horse descends from the horses introduced into Peru by the Spaniards in the sixteenth-century. Today's Peruvian Paso horse is the result of 400-plus years of highly selective breeding. This horse is larger, deeper in the body and wider, have high head carriage and front leg lift, are smooth to ride and exhibit basic four-beat lateral footfall.

AREQUIPA (COLCA): UYU UYU BELVEDERE AND QAYRACUCHO WATERFALLS

After preparing the horses, we depart for Yanque (home to the 17th-century colonial Church of the Immaculate Conception). We head toward the Chacapi Bridge to cross the Colca River. We ascend to the Qochopata viewpoint until we reach the Uyu Uyu viewpoint and the Qayracucho waterfalls. We continue our ride, descending toward the Colcas de Chininia. We then head toward Yanque, where we complete the tour for our final transfer to the hotel.

NOTE: These tours can be added in the program of 3 days at Colca.

THE PROGRAM INCLUDES

Transfers, English-speaking guide / Helmets / Implement corresponding to the horse (saddles, herd, etc.) / Gaiter (calf protection) / Chalán to guide during travel / First aid kit

THE PROGRAM DOES NOT INCLUDE

Overnights at Colca / Tips / Entrance fee to Uyu Uyu

Legendary PERU

CUSCO (SACRED VALLEY): SACRED VALLEY

Transfer from Cusco to the Paucarbamba Bridge (2,900mt/9.510ft), where we expect the horses. The ride begins (1.30h) to cross the Urubamba River with spectacular views of peaks, agricultural terraces and the Inca Trail. The tour ends at the Cachiccata town, where we expect the transport to take us back to Cusco.

CUSCO (SACRED VALLEY): MORAY

Transfer from Cusco to the Andean Community of Piscuycro. The ride begins (2h) through Andean communities and farmland. There is an excellent view of the Urubamba mountain range and its snowcapped mountains from the highest point of the route, in K'asa. Finally, you get to Moray to visit the archaeological site. Then transfer back to Cusco.

THE PROGRAMS AT CUSCO (SACRED VALLEY) INCLUDE

Round trip transfers / English-speaking guide and muleteer / 01 fine horse per pax (rider's weight: max. 85 kg / 187 pounds) / Gloves and helmet / Entrance fee to Moray

THE PROGRAMS AT CUSCO (SACRED VALLEY) DO NOT INCLUDE

Overnights at Cusco / Entrance to Moray / Visit to the archaeological sites / Tips
